Re: John D. Dingell for Congress Committee - C00002600
October Quarterly Report (7/18/96-9/30/96)
30-Day Post-General Report (10/17/96-11/25/96)

Dear Ms. Sheppard:

This responds to your letters dated June 17, 1997 regarding the Dingell Committee's October Quarterly and 30-Day Post-General reports.

October Quarterly

Your letter asks about a contribution from the Consumers Power Co. Employees PAC. A review of our records indicates that the $2,000 contribution received on 8/2/96 should have been redesignated to the general election. A refund check has been issued and a copy is attached.

30-Day Post-General

Your letter states that Schedule A disclosed contributions received after the general which were designated for the general. A review of our records indicates that these three contributions were received for the 1998 primary and should have been reported as such. The Committee is in the process of making technical amendments to several of its 1996 reports. Those amendments, including corrections to these designations, will be filed with the Committee's 1997 Mid-Year Report.

You also asked about a 48-hour notice disclosing a contribution from Elaine Fritz on 10/24/96 for $1,000. This contribution was disclosed on Schedule A of the
